Louisville National Union Press.

Such is the name of the new paper which has been on the stocks for some time. It is to represent the sentiments of some people in this State who have a right to be heard as well as other people. It is to represent unconditional

Unionism in Kentucky; and it is important to know what it is. The terms employed need explanation in present circumstances. The Abolitionists all profess to be unconditional

Union men; but they begin with a radical indispensable condition—the abolition of slavery.

They have long made that a condition of Union. There can be no Union without it.

Such is their position now, and such is the position of this new paper, judging from its editorials and the documents it publishes to show its status. What right, then, has it to assume that it is an unconditional Union paper? It is an advocate of the dominant party, and that party has declared by its acts that there can be no Union of free and slave States. It will have no Union except on its own conditions. Our fathers were not unconditional

Union men. They prescribed very carefully the conditions of Union in the Constitution.

They would, with perfect unanimity, have secured a Union without conditions.

We are unconditionally for the Union they made, with its conditions. If we get it. We do not say we would accept of other but we have a right to the old Union with its conditions; and no power on earth has a right to impose any other conditions on us. Our fathers did not claim the right to impose

their conditions on any State, and we have no right to impose any upon the majority of any

State. Such an act would be naked usurpation and despotism.

Now, we charge that the dominant party are striving to make a Union with new conditions, which are to be imposed by force on a majority of a State. It is for a Union unknown to our fathers, and unwarmed by our fathers'

unions, contrary to our historical precedents and judicial interpretations. Yet they call themselves unconditional Union men. Judging by their acts they are unconditionally

POLICE PROCEEDINGS—Monday, April 18— A large lot of sore eyes and bruised heads, and heads as large as a barrel. The first case presented this morning was that of a petition of Levi West, who wanted to set aside the judgment of this court on Saturday last for a felony, which was overruled.

John Haley, assaulting James Murray with intent to kill. Murray had only one eye, which Haley kicked out with the toe of his boot; dismissed as to felony and held to answer a misdemeanor, as a man by the name of Tibbey is the friend who committed the outrage.

Riley Parker, John D. Noble, John Donnelly, shooting Michael Haley, stabbing John McElhannon and shooting Sallie Nell through the arm, continued until to-morrow.

Ed. Harris, stealing a watch from George Madison; the proof not sustaining the charge, he was discharged.

Jack Myers, drunk and disorderly; fined $5, and security for three months' good behavior.

George Taylor, drunk and disorderly conduct, and carrying concealed a deadly weapon; fined $5.

Henry Hite and Wilson Brownlee, free negroes, gambling with a slave of Mr. Shipper; $100 to answer a misdemeanor.

Jim, slave of Mr. Reynolds, and Jim, slave of Mr. Owens, drunk and disorderly conduct; the court awarded seven stripes.

Ernest Davis, stealing one pair of boots from Victor Erdman; $500 to answer the charge in the Circuit Court.

James Martin, drunk and disorderly conduct and abusing his family; fined $5.

George Rhodes, drunk; fined $5.

Oliver Cross, slave of Wm. W. Twyman, drunk and disorderly conduct; 7 stripes.

Pat Flannery, feloniously entering the house of Pat. Hanly with intent to steal; discharged, these being no proof.

HOUSE OF REFUGE.—The great importance of giving up the house of refuge having been laid before the military authorities an order was issued some time since ordering the evacuation of that building and the surrendering of the same to the hands of the civil authorities. We are informed that as yet the board of directors of that institution have taken no steps towards putting the building in repair for the reception of the wicked youth of our city. In accordance with the city charter, new directors cannot be elected until the first Saturday in May, and it behooves the present directors to use every effort to at once put the building in order, that there may be some place where the large number of children present before the Police Court may be confined. This is a matter of the most vital importance, and for the sake of humanity we hope that it will be attended to at once.

ARREST OF DESERTERS.—The patrol guard yesterday arrested Hardin Bennett and Jas. G. Lane, of the Twelfth Kentucky cavalry, as deserters. Daniel Bodley, of the First Kentucky battery; Joseph Knott, company H, Forty-ninth Indiana; Jno. C. Kelley, company B, Nineteenth United States, and Columbus Bolin, company F, Twenty-third Indiana, were arrested at Jeffersonville, Ind., and brought to this city. The parties were all confined in the guardhouse at the barracks, where they will be kept until they are tried by court martial.

SELLING OFFICERS' CLOTHING TO SOLDIERS.—Notwithstanding the stringent orders and the frequent warnings, some of our clothing merchants persist in selling officers' clothing to private soldiers. Yesterday J. Uman, who keeps a clothing store on Market street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, was arrested and taken before the Provost Marshal on the above charge. After thoroughly examining the case, Colonel Vaughn sent Uman to the military prison for ten days.

BARRACKS ITEMS.—Only a moderate amount of business was transacted at the barracks yesterday. Two hundred and eighteen convalescents from different points, en route for their regiments, were the only arrivals. Two hundred and ten recruits and convalescents were transferred to their regiments and seven prisoners were sent off heavily ironed, as follows: three to Nashville, two to Covington and two to Ohio.

POCKET-BOOK LOST.—An ambulance driver lost his pocket-book last evening somewhere between the stable corner Seventh and Green and Green and Tenth streets. It contained $28.30. The finder will confer a favor and be liberally rewarded by leaving it at the Democrat office so the owner can get it.

A couple of things calling themselves Professors Dunning & Early, after advertising in this city for pupils to learn a new and beautiful art, and by this means raising two or three hundred dollars, took themselves off with the money. We warn our readers to be on their guard to beware of them.

CHILD LOST.—Yesterday a boy about three years of age was missed by his parents, who reside on Main street, three doors above Brook, and up to a late hour last night had not been found. Any information in regard to the child will be thankfully received by its bereaved mother.

"On Sunday evening two hundred mechanics were brought to this city under guard," who had made a strike for higher wages. We have not learned what the Government will do in regard to the matter.

Yesterday Thomas Shaine was arrested by Capt. Van Dickenhouse, upon the charge of robbery, and turned over to the civil authorities for trial.

Major General Slocum and staff arrived in this city yesterday on the train from Nashville, and put up at the Galt House.

Ex-President Fillmore arrived in this city yesterday morning for Nashville.

The train from Nashville came in on time last evening. Nothing of unusual interest transpired along the line.

Catherine Linneman appointed administratrix of B. H. Linneman; F. Bohlsen surety.

Inventories of the estates of B. H. Linneman and Prothier Troxler were filed for record.

COURTS MARTIAL.—In the court of which Capt. Wolcott is Judge Advocate, the case of Jno. Shipley, of company F, Thirtieth Kentucky cavalry, was finished. The findings and sentence of the court have been sent forward for approval.

To-day the case of Capt. Hines, of the Fifth Kentucky, will be investigated. He is charged with violating the twenty-fourth article of war and with conduct unbecoming an officer and gentleman.

In Capt. Grant's court, the case of Capt. W. B. Dunn, company F, Twentieth Kentucky, was called. The only witness examined was Gov. Bramlette, after which the court adjourned until to-day.

This case will occupy the attention of the court for several days to come.

RAID INTO BOONEVILLE.—We learn that on last Friday a party of guerrillas made a raid into Booneville. The citizens of the town banded together, armed themselves with shot guns and rifles, and when the rebels dashed into town they gave them a warm reception. The rebels were completely routed, with considerable loss. If the citizens would arm and protect themselves against these roving bands of guerrillas we would have less of raids and guerrilla outrages.

GUERRILLAS ON GREEN RIVER.—There are unmistakable evidences of the existence of numerous guerrilla gangs in the Green river country. They have been practicing their outrages for several weeks without any force on the Federal side to oppose them. A few days since they fired on the steamer Campbell, in Green river, but did but little damage to the boat. When the leaves come out upon the trees, mischief may be expected in that quarter.

The friends of Fount Everhart will be pleased to learn that he is now a member of the firm of F. North & Co. All who know him will be glad to deal with him, and those who do not have only to try him to find him a clever business man, and always ready to accommodate. He will certainly not allow any one to go away disappointed.

There was a rumor afloat in Evansville and Henderson, Saturday, that General Shackelford had been captured at Madisonville, Ky., on Wednesday evening last. We have taken some pains to ascertain the probability of the rumor, but are inclined to believe it is not true.

Yesterday the military arrested John Howe and John Flannigan, charged with robbing Edward Abbott, of the Third Ohio, on Friday night, of fifty-one dollars. Owing to the high standing of the parties rescued, we forbear making any comments until the case is investigated.

The following deserters, who were arrested at Owensboro, Ky., a few days since, were brought to this city yesterday for trial by court martial: John Dillberry and J. D. Fulkerson, Twelfth Kentucky cavalry, and J. McElrath, of Sixth Kentucky cavalry.

Amusements.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—There was a large and fashionable audience at the Louisville last night to witness Miss Leo Hudson in her character of Manette. She is one of the most daring actresses we have ever seen. Her rendition of the part was excellent, and gave general satisfaction. The piece will be repeated tonight, which, with the farce of the Omnibus, will constitute the evening's performance.

THE CIRCUS.—Lake & Co.'s Great Western Circus opened in our city last night, and the immense patronage it has attracted is a proof of the popularity of the show. The riding of Little Alice, and the great strength of the price of admission. Mr. John Lowlow is a "fellow of infinite wit" and he kept the audience convulsed with laughter. The company is one of the best that has been in our city for a long time, and those who wish to enjoy themselves should not fail to attend. There will be an exhibition at 3 o'clock this afternoon and another at 7 o'clock this evening.
